I. TEXT COMPREHESION : GONDO'S LETTER

20th August

Dear Viviane

I'm writing to you from my village. We're having a wonderful time here.

Every morning our big cock crows, and people wake up and start doing different things. The cock is crowing again right now while I'm writing this letter.

I can hear my uncle in the yard. He's sharpening the machetes to go to the farm. He sharpens them three times a week early in the morning. My cousin Ekissi is cutting wood to make a fire. He cuts wood for us every day. My aunt is cooking some porridge and rice for our lunch on the farm. She always cooks for us when we go to the farm.

My sister is at the well now. She's fetching water for everybody. It's our Job to fetch the water for the whole family. It's hard work but we enjoy it. We go to the well and chat with our friends twice a day.

We're all very busy here till four o'clock in the afternoon. Afterwards we play games. Sorry, my aunt is calling me now. I must join my sister at the well. Write back soon. I'm waiting for your letter.

Yours, Gondo
